Mini Indy Hosts Eastern QMA Event for 3rd Time

You may be at the Mini Indy Grands for the first time, this year, but the Club has hosted the Eastern Grands - 3 times - over the years. The first Grands held here was in 1993. Again in 1995, the Grands came back to Indy and in 2003, the largest Grand National Event in the history of QMA, was right here where you are today! Over 1,000 cars participated at that event. The grounds and the stands were filled to capacity and Quarter Midget Families have talked about the event for years! Coast 2 Coast Racing News created the very FIRST Daily Paper at the Grands in 1995, right here at Mini Indy. "We have a copy of every paper from the Grands, when our boys were drivers," said Cindy and Jeff Nuckles of Columbus Motor Speedway. "It was the first thing we did when we got to the track, each morning." Enjoy your week at the 2010 Eastern Grands. It will be part of Quarter Midget Racing history and your memories for many years to come. Most of all..... have FUN!

How Much Would You Do to Get to the Grands?

Let's All Hope for Good Luck for the Morga Family of Albuquerque, NM. Driver Cameron, dad Sean and Grampa did EVERYTHING to get to the 2010 Eastern Grands! It's roughly 1295 miles from Albuquerque to Indianapolis, ONE WAY, but when you cover some of those miles more than once... you wonder what some families would do, to get to the Grands! First it was Sean's motorhome that developed problems, so they hitched the trailer to Grampa's motorhome, piled everyone in and continued driving. Grampa's motorhome became disabled somewhere around St Louis, MO. Then they rented a truck to haul the trailer to Indy. After parking and putting mom and the kids in a hotel, they drove back to pick up the motorhomes and return the rental truck!

Keep your eyes OPEN this week for past QuarterMidget Driver Sightings! Chris Eggleston, of Colorado is here helping the Stedman Family. Chris raced here at the 2003 Grands! Follow his career at chrisegglestonracing.com

Please shake their hands and say 'Thanks' to the previous Quarter Midget Racers - Taylor and Tyler Courtney, Chris Wilner and Wes McIntyre. They are working their tails off as corner workers for your drivers!
