Ronald McDonald House Charities of New Mexico provides a home for families with ill or injured children being cared for at an Albuquerque medical facility.

Founded in 1982 to operate and fund the New Mexico Ronald McDonald House, RMHC continues to respond to the needs of families and children in our region by:

- Operating the 30-bedroom New Mexico Ronald McDonald House that provides a special "home away from home" to families with seriously ill or injured children;
- Operating the Ronald McDonald Family Room at University of New Mexico's Children's Hospital. Opened in 2007, this special place inside the hospital provides families with inpatient children a place to get away from the sights and sounds of the hospital so they can rejuvenate their energy.
