Please bring non perishable food items for this charity event.

Tickets will be issued to those that donate and will be eligible for give away items that will be given out throughout the entire event.

Each participant will receive points from each race and will be awarded at the conclusion of the series by combining all points accumulated from each race.

To be eligible to receive an award, each participant must run at least one race at ALQMA and at least one race at CCQMA in the same class and will be awarded for each class in which this requirement is met.

Awards will be handed out during a ceremony at the ALQMA coliseum event which is held the weekend of October 27th & 28th, 2012.

Qualifying, lower mains and A-mains will be the format for all 4 events of the series and CCQMA's points breakdown will be followed.
